Committee, Grievance Redressal Committee etc, which facilitate proper coordination between the two Departments. Trade Facilitation Committee meetings provide a forum for exchange of views between the customs and the licensing authorities at regional levels. The existing coordination mechanism is considered to be adequate and effective. The coordination mechanism will be improved further after the Electronic Data Interchange between the customs and the licensing authorities is fully established for all export promotion schemes.

(c) and (d) The Special Valuation Branch (SVB), Special Intelligence and Investigation Branch (SIIB) and Appraising Groups work in close coordination with one another to safeguard Government revenue. The SVBs provide valuable inputs to the asessing officers for valuation of the goods. The SIIB issues Alerts, Modus Operandi Circulars from time to time which provide valuable guidance to the assessing officers. References made by the Appraising Groups to SVB/SIIB are monitored by the supervisory officers in the Custom Houses.

(e) Cases of non-fulfilment of export obligation arise due to a variety of reasons. However, no cases of non-fulfilment of export obligation due to the alleged incorrect reckoning of export have been reported.
